

The expert guide for property owners

Das Haus

Das Haus is a modern guide to building, homes and good living. The magazine for regional building society customers with housing loans has been published for over 65 years, giving it a wealth of experience and specialist knowledge unlike any other magazine in Germany.

An independent editorial team researches and informs readers of all real estate topics, from financing to renovation and questions about insurance. Thanks to its many years of expertise, Das Haus is regarded as highly credible by its readers and is the top guide for current and aspiring property owners. Ten times a year, the magazine provides specific tips and creative ideas to make home-owning dreams a reality.
