

Magazine with plenty of entertainment and service value

Freizeit Exklusiv was launched in 2009 as a monthly women's entertainment magazine. Its mix of advice, health, celebrity news and puzzles was received so well that it moved to a fortnightly publication cycle in September 2015. Highly entertaining and informative, the magazine also stands out thanks to its spacious layout. It has 84 pages and a regular pull-out food supplement.

Links: Advertising service

Kai Winckler
Editor-in-chief

Kai Winckler has been working as editor-in-chief of various entertainment publications since 1993. He was editor-in-chief of "Das neue Blatt" from 2002–2007, "Neue Post" from 2008–2010, and "Neue Welt" and "Frau Aktuell" from 2012–2016. In July 2016, he moved to BurdaLife to become editor-in-chief of Freizeit Revue, Freizeit Spass and Freizeit Exklusiv.

Facts

Division	BurdaLife
Managing director	Kay Labinsky
Editors-in-chief	Tina Janssen (responsible for news, celebrities, reports acc. to press law) Sabrina Stechel (responsible for advice sections acc. to press law)
Headquarters	Offenburg
Frequency	Fortnightly (Wednesday)
Price	€0.90
Published since	2009
Circulation	161,642 (paid circulation, IVW II/2016)
Contact	freizeitexklusiv@burda.com