

Creative magazine with step-by-step instructions

The monthly magazine Gartenspaß is aimed at hobby gardeners who love to get creative. The magazine shows them how to use easy-care plants, simple design tips and all sorts of creative ideas to shape their own dream garden and still have plenty of time to enjoy what they have created.

Gartenspaß provides solutions that will be clear to novices and can be implemented without too much effort. Step-by-step images provide instructions that can be put into practice right away, such as the correct way to care for plants, keep your lawn in perfect condition, trim bushes and hedges or install a pond.
