

Biggest employer review platform in the German-speaking region

Kununu's vision is to achieve complete transparency on the jobs market. With over 1,090,000 reviews of more than 243,000 companies, Kununu is the biggest employer review platform in the German-speaking region. Employees, applicants and trainees use kununu.com to review companies in categories such as manager behaviour, career opportunities and communication.

Companies like Allianz, Siemens and Microsoft use Kununu for their employer branding. In addition, Kununu's review anonymity, transparent review standards and data security have been TÜV-certified since 2015.

Kununu was founded in Vienna in 2007 and has been a subsidiary of XING SE since 2013. The name "kununu" comes from Swahili and means "blank sheet". For more information, visit kununu.com.
