

Sense of Home

In the age of flexibility there is a longing for "arriving" and "home", but at the same time this generation is always a little afraid of "arriving", of being "too stuffy". Furnishing is not the main topic, but rather the "culture of life and living": How do I want to live? What makes a home? What do I really need? And how do I manage to escape?

The magazine embodies the longing for departure, for easy and simple life, for wanderlust for people who rarely manage to break out of their everyday lives themselves. Airbnb Spirit - Never a stranger.
